

THOUGHT FOR 18th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (30th/31st July):

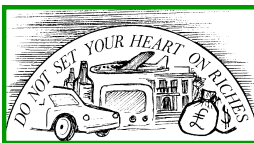

Whether it's money in the bank or grain in the barn, we can all become so preoccupied with our financial situation that it prevents us from living. To be rich indeed is to know what is important to us in life. There are some things we never miss until they are gone. And usually these things have nothing to do with money.

First Reading: (Eccles 1:2; 2:21-23). The things that are supposed to satisfy human beings do not satisfy them.

Second Reading: (Col 3:1-5, 9-11). Through Baptism we share in the life of Christ. We hear some of the conclusions that follow from this.

Gospel: (Lk 12:13-21). Jesus warns against greed, and stresses the foolishness of depending on material things for one's security rather than on God.

THOUGHT FOR 19th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (6/7th August):

Deathbed conversions are rare things. Usually the way we live is the way we die and the values we have in life are those we take to the grave. Jesus tells us to make our choice now: where our treasure is, there will be our heart. And the Son of Man will come at an hour we do not expect.

First Reading: (Wis 18:6-9). Just as God came to the rescue of the Jews in Egypt, so will He save those who put their trust in Him.

Second Reading: (Heb 11:1-2, 8-19). We are called to imitate the faith of the patriarchs, especially that of Abraham, 'our father in faith'.

Gospel: (Lk 12:32-48) The parable of the waiting servants urges a constant watchfulness and faithfulness.
